

DOM NEWS BLAST

The LSU Department of Medicine Weekly Communication

Dr. Tammy Do (IM Resident) was recently honored as the UMC Resident of the Year. Dr. Emily Sedgwick, UMC President & CEO and Dr. Bill Killinger, UMC CMO as well as other UMC leaders attended Medicine Grand Rounds to surprise Dr. Do with the award. At our final MGR of the year, Dr. Do was re-awarded by our former Chief Residents. This is a well-deserved honor for Dr. Do.

Dr. Michelle Blyth (Infectious Diseases) was elected a council member of the International Society for Evolution, Medicine & Public Health.

Congratulations, Dr. Blyth!

Dr. Suki Subbiah (Hematology-Oncology) recently presented a plenary session entitled "COVID-19 and Cancer: Inception, Methods, and Outcomes" at the North American Association of Central Cancer Registries (NAACCR) conference which was hosted by the LSU Health New Orleans Louisiana Tumor Registry.

Details can be found in this press release:

<https://www.lsuhs.edu/newsroom/LSU%20Health%20New%20Orleans%20Hosts%20Meeting%20of%20North%20American%20Cancer%20Statistics%20Specialists.html>

Dr. Ben Springgate (Community & Population Medicine) was recently cited in an American Heart Association News article entitled "How heart attack and stroke survivors can prepare for wildfires and hurricanes. The article provides practical advice for patients and families and can be viewed at:

How heart attack and stroke survivors can prepare for wildfires and hurricanes | American Heart Association

Dr. David Rayburn (Emergency Medicine) recently published in the International Journal of Healthcare Simulation. Way to go, Dr. Rayburn!