A. Personal Statement

As an Assistant Professor in the Department of Oncology at Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center, I have over 10 years of experience in general surgery, urology and urologic oncology in the greater New Orleans area. I am the Director of Urologic Oncology and Director of the MB-CCOP Urologic Oncology Clinical Cancer Pathway (cMAPs) program for the Stanley S. Scott Cancer Center. I have been actively involved in this program since the completion of my urologic oncology fellowship. As a board certified urologic oncologist, my clinical responsibilities in the Gulf South-Minority Based NCORP include the direction of the multi-disciplinary Urologic Oncology cMAP and coordination of all cancer clinical trials. In the NCORP, I will collaborate with Dr. Robert Veith as a co-director of the Clinical Trials Research Program and will be mentored by the Principal Investigator to become a leader in clinical research. My primary clinical trials interests are: developing a multidisciplinary core in urologic oncology; the potential role of cytoreduction in oligometastatic prostate cancer; the role of active surveillance in the population of African Americans at “low risk” for prostate cancer; the development of multidisciplinary pathways for the integration of surgery and systemic chemotherapy in the treatment of carcinoma of the bladder; and surgical reconstruction of the urinary system.
