

Poster and oral presentations

Our summer internship culminates in a poster session and a symposium where the students present what was learned over the summer. During the summer internship, students receive training in presentation skills, including how to give a presentation at a medical or scientific meeting. It is strongly encouraged that students reuse the poster at another poster session or meeting. The summer posters and oral presentations are judged and awarded for excellence.