

PACE-HOPE: Professional Advancement for Clinician Educators – House Officer Professional Education

Department of Internal Medicine
2008-09

REDS: Resident Educational Development Series Conducted in Partnership with the Office of Medical Education Research and Development

Teaching and professional development topics and skills that are particularly relevant at each level of postgraduate medical education.

3rd Tuesdays; 3-5pm; ENT Conference Room; CSRB 5th Floor

| Date | PGY-1 | PGY-2 | PGY-3/Fellow |
|-------------------|--|--|------------------------------|
| June 30 Monday | Transition to Residency: Resident's Role and Elements of Clinical Teaching | | |
| August 19 | | | Performance Assessments |
| September 16 | | Clinical Teaching, Maximizing Time to Teach, 1-min Preceptor | |
| October 21 | Questioning Strategies; Giving Feedback | | |
| November 18 | | | Large Group/Lecture Teaching |
| December 16 | | Team-based Teaching | |
| January 20 | | | Effective Team Leadership |
| February 17 | Professionalism: Responding to Unprofessional Behavior | | |
| March 17 | | Giving and Receiving Feedback | |
| April 21 | | | Medical Humanities* |
| May 19 | | Medical Humanities* | |
| June 9 | Medical Humanities* | | |

Ambulatory Block – *Medical Humanities: Duty Hour Stress/Burnout/Fatigue; Reducing Impairment; Resident Learning Portfolios; Cultural Competency