SCHOLARSHIPS

A limited number of scholarships are available. These are awarded to students who demonstrate high scholastic potential or achievement and who may have need for financial assistance. These scholarships are administered by the scholarship committee of the School of Medicine with input from the Office of Admissions and the Office of Student Affairs and Records. No application is necessary.

THE MEDICAL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIPS - These scholarships are supported by alumni funds. The medical alumni, to date, have contributed over $50,000 to this activity. These funds, derived from alumni generosity, are maintained in a sequestered principal trust deposited with the LSU Foundation. Earnings from the trust are distributed annually.

THE FRED ALLISON, JR., M.D., SCHOLARSHIP - This scholarship was established by friends and former house officers of Dr. Allison upon his retirement from the School of Medicine in 1987. Dr. Allison served for 19 years as the Edgar Hull M.D. Alumni Professor and Head of the Department of Medicine. The Scholarship is awarded annually to a student of exceptional promise and true financial need.

THE CLASS OF 1958 SILVER ANNIVERSARY SCHOLARSHIP FUND - At its twenty-fifth anniversary reunion in 1983, the Class of 1958 established a scholarship in the name of the class. Earnings from this fund will be used to award partial scholarships to two needy medical students in good academic standing.

THE JAMES ALEXANDER THOM III SCHOLARSHIP - This scholarship, is made possible by gifts of the family of Dr. James Alexander Thom III of Baton Rouge, a member of the Graduating Class of 1942 of the School of Medicine, and is awarded to a medical student on the basis of scholarship and evidence of need, to be determined by the Office of Student Affairs and Records.

THE WILLIAM WESLEY FRYE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP - This scholarship, supported by the scholarship fund of the Medical Alumni Association, has been designated in honor of the late Dr. William W. Frye, (1903-1975), Dean of the School of Medicine from 1949-1966 and Chancellor of the Medical Center from 1966-1969. This scholarship is awarded to a student in the School of Medicine who has demonstrated high scholastic potential and who has need of financial assistance.

THE EDGAR HULL SCHOLARSHIP - An alumnus of the School of Medicine, Dr. Julius H. Mullins of Baton Rouge, a member of the Graduating Class of 1936, has provided a scholarship to be awarded annually to a first-year student who has demonstrated high scholastic potential and has need of financial assistance. This scholarship has been designated in honor of the late Dr. Edgar Hull, formerly professor and Head of the Department of Medicine, and associate dean of the School of Medicine. Dr. Hull was a member of the active faculty from the time the School opened, until 1966, when he was appointed Dean of the School of Medicine in Shreveport.
THE SOUTHERN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION MEDICAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP - The Southern Medical Association makes funds annually to the School of Medicine for the purpose of providing assistance to first-year students, particularly those of superior abilities.

THE KELLOGG ENDOWMENT FUND SCHOLARSHIP - Two scholarships are sponsored by the Kellogg Endowment Fund and are awarded annually to students who have demonstrated academic excellence and are in need of financial assistance.

MEDICAL SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIPS FOR DISADVANTAGED STUDENTS - Each year scholarships are provided for qualified disadvantaged students pursuing a professional career in the field of medicine. These scholarships are awarded on a yearly basis provided the student remains in good academic standing. Students are selected on the basis of financial need and merit.

(for First Year Only)

HENRY AND DELIA SELBY MERIT SCHOLARSHIP - This scholarship, established in 1990, is named for and funded by Dr. Henry Selby, M.D., a 1943 graduate of the LSU School of Medicine in New Orleans and his wife, Delia. This is a scholarship awarded by the School and the first scholarship based solely on academic merit rather than financial need. Dr. Selby is a radiologist in New York City. This annual scholarship is given to a promising incoming first year student.

DR. LYNN CHURCHILL HARTMAN SCHOLARSHIP - This is a scholarship based solely on academic merit rather than financial need established at LSU School of Medicine in New Orleans. Fred Hartman established the scholarship in honor of his late wife, a 1946 graduate of the LSU School of Medicine in New Orleans. The scholarship is awarded annually to a promising incoming first year female medical student.

DR. EDMOND CAMPBELL SCHOLARSHIP - This is a scholarship awarded by the School to an entering freshman. It is based solely on academic merit rather than financial need.

LSUHSC FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS - Two merit-based scholarships awarded to two entering freshmen.

LOUISIANA CLINIC MERIT SCHOLARSHIP - The amount of this scholarship will vary from year to year.

MICHAEL T. CONNELL, M.D., MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP - This scholarship, established in 1999, is named for Dr. Michael T. Connell, a 1990 graduate of the LSU School of Medicine in New Orleans. It was the wish of his friends and family to award this scholarship to a promising incoming first year student.

LOUISIANA MEDICAL MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY SCHOLARSHIP - This is a $10,000 scholarship awarded by the School to an incoming first year student and is based solely on academic merit.