Charcot staging:

Stage 1 - Dissolution Phase - swelling, redness, increased skin temperature and no bone callus formation.
Stage 2 - Coalescence - Absence of swelling and redness. Increased skin temperature. Early consolidation on X-ray Stage 3 - Remodeling - Skin temperature ≤ 2 degrees of contralateral side. Consolidation on x-ray.