What Every Parent, Counselor, Teacher, and Healthcare Provider Should Know about Youth Alcohol Abuse

Hosted by LSU Health New Orleans
Department of Physiology
Alcohol and Drug Abuse Center of Excellence
Comprehensive Alcohol Research Center

School of Nursing Lecture Hall A, 1900 Gravier St, New Orleans, LA

1:00 – 1:20 PM  Outreach Event Registration and Check-In

1:20 – 1:30 PM  Welcome and Opening Remarks
Patricia E. Molina M.D. Ph.D., Professor and Head of Physiology
NIAAA T32 and ADACE Director, LSU Health

1:30-1:50 PM  Alcohol Use Disorders: A Preclinical Perspective
Peter J. Winsauer Ph.D., Professor of Pharmacology, LSU Health-NO

1:50-2:10 PM  Alcohol Use Disorders: A Clinical Perspective
Megan L. Armstrong Ph.D., Clinical Psychologist, LSU Health-NO

2:10-2:30 PM  Open Discussion

2:30 – 3:00 PM Coffee Break and Light Refreshments

3:00-3:30 PM  What do Basic Science Studies Tell Us About Causes and Consequences of Adolescent Alcohol Use?
Linda P. Spear Ph.D., Distinguished Professor of Psychology; Director, Developmental Exposure Alcohol Research Center (DEARC), SUNY-Binghamton

3:30-4:00 PM  Alcohol and the Teen Brain
Lindsay M. Squeglia Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences Medical University of South Carolina

4:00-4:30 PM  Adolescent Alcohol Use: Neurons to Neighborhoods
Tammy A. Chung Ph.D., Associate Professor of Psychiatry and Epidemiology Pittsburgh University Medical Center

4:30-4:45 PM  Open Discussion

4:45-5:00 PM  Conclusion & Action Items
Mimi Fleury, President, Community of Concern

5:00 PM  Conclusion