Interested in Promotion?

The process for faculty interested in academic promotion for the upcoming cycle (effective July 2026) is underway. The Dean's Office has requested that all faculty who intend to seek promotion this cycle declare their intent soon. Please inform Dr. Brian Barkemeyer, Pediatric Promotions Committee Chair, at bbarke@lsuhsc.edu of your intentions by April 7, 2025.

Typically, most faculty have been in their current rank for at least 6 to 7 years by the time of their promotion effective date (i.e., in current rank at least since 2019-20 for those intending to seek promotion this cycle). Rarely, a candidate's accomplishments may allow for promotion on a shorter interval. Please be on the lookout for promotion workshops from the Dean's Office in the near future. The promotions process requires timely adherence to promotion guidelines and packet preparation. Packet preparation requires time and involves extensive administrative support from Kelly Allerton.

Current promotion information can be found on the LSUHSC School of Medicine faculty affairs website at https://www.medschool.lsuhs.edu/faculty_affairs/promotions_and_tenure.aspx

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT

New video monthly

April Video: Communication

Good communication skills are crucial to quality healthcare. Whether during rounds, in clinic or via Telemedicine we can all teach our learners about clear, compassionate communication. Let's focus on our communication skills during the month of April. This quick video (under three minute) is a great reminder of how important these skills are and gives tips for continual quality improvement.

Katrina Skinner, MD, FAAP, a lifelong resident of Fairhope, Alabama, opened her hometown pediatric practice right after completing her pediatric residency training at the University of Florida – Sacred Heart. She is passionate about caring for the children in her community and finds great joy in watching local families grow.

Dr. Skinner is a nationally recognized speaker and consultant. She is the founder of two companies, Women in Pediatrics and Pediatric CEO, both providing personal and professional development for fellow pediatricians. Dr. Skinner is also a past president of the Alabama Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics and continues to serve on their board, where she champions the well-being of children and pediatricians across the state.

Objectives: At the conclusion of this activity, participants should be able to:

- Identify true priorities and describe strategies to train the Reticular Activating System (RAS) to focus on meaningful goals rather than perceived urgency.
- Implement a daily reflection practice that reinforces focus by recognizing and recording personal accomplishments.
- Choose and execute imperfect actions to build momentum toward personal and professional growth.

Intended audience: This activity is specifically directed towards the pediatric provider, but it is open to all interested physicians, residents, medical students, nursing, and allied health professionals.

Accreditation Manning Family Children's is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Designation Manning Family Children's designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

CNE statement: LCMC Health Nursing Education Committee is approved as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by Louisiana State Nurses Association - Approver, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. LSNA Provider No. 4002636

ADA Statement: In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, if special accommodations are needed, please notify Denise Graham at 504-896-9431.

Changes to Overnight Hospital Public Access

Effective Monday, April 7, the Emergency Department will be the only public entrance to the hospital overnight between the hours of 9:00 pm and 5:00 am. This change is a result of feedback from our team members, an assessment completed by our Public Safety team, and based on best practices across the country.

We will be posting signage at the Main Entrance, Sky Bridge Entrance, Pavilion Entrance and throughout the parking garage to help direct visitors accordingly. Please note that staff (badge access only) entrances will not be affected by this change."
