

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION

The CME Advisory committee is charged with providing oversight and leadership to the CME activities sponsored by the LSU Office of Medical Education. The committee ensures CME activities are planned and implemented according to the Association for Continuing Medical Education, American Medical Association Physicians Recognition Award procedures and in compliance with ACCME's Standards for Commercial Support. The committee is also charged with identifying opportunities for continued growth to serve the educational needs of LSU physicians.