

COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE

The Communications Committee originated from the Dean's Strategic Initiative and aims to improve communications at the School of Medicine, both internally and between the school and the public. The goal of the committee is to identify areas where communications are lacking, establish systems to address these shortfalls, and develop mechanisms to facilitate the acquisition and dissemination of information important to the life of the LSU School of Medicine.