

Graduate Medical Education Committee

GMEC is charged with oversight of accreditation and quality of educational programs as well as review and approval of any program changes and/or communications with the ACGME including but not limited to program performance, accreditation letters, requests for changes in program structure or function and any other factors that might affect program performance.