Faculty Development - Thinking Like a Doctor

How do we teach learners to "Think Like a Doctor"? How do we help learners get from data to diagnosis and treatment? how do we teach Clinical Reasoning Skills? This video (8 minutes) breaks down how we (experts) synthesize information to make medical decisions, and how we can teach our medical students and residents to move past "novice" thinking patterns. This is highly recommended for those teaching in busy clinical settings.

For questions or comments regarding Faculty Development, please contact Amy Prudhomme, Jessica Patrick-Esteve or Amy Creel. (video)

The LSU Healthy Tigers would like to extend our sincerest appreciation for all donations to the Holiday Book Drive. We received 1500+ books which will be distributed throughout the year!

We are looking for volunteers for an evening of service on February 13th from 5:30-7:30 PM at Second Harvest Food Bank. If interested, please email Amanda Glinky at aglink@lsuhsc.edu.

CHNOLA is offering Provider Optimization Labs to help people with either personalization or learning efficiencies. A trainer will be available in the Medical Staff lounge 11am-2pm on the following days:

- January 22
- February 4
- February 5
- February 18
- February 19
- March 18

The labs are drop in. The trainer will also be available to come round or assist in the main campus clinics before/after these times if arranged ahead of time. Please let me know if you would like the trainer to visit your clinic at main campus.

Lactic Acid ordering changes: Lactic Acid is only done by RT and the new order routes it to them. Please see the attached picture showing the new order appearance. (Lactic Acid Order)
