

Helpful Hints for Creation of Interactive Lectures

1. Identify a few essential points that the audience must learn
2. Create one to three cases to illustrate these points
3. Develop a worksheet
4. Have residents and students work in groups to solve cases
5. Minimize your slides
6. State learning objectives in the beginning of lecture
7. State format in the beginning of the lecture
8. Ask clear questions
9. Pause after each question >5 seconds
10. Make them justify their answers
11. Incorporate basic science principles if applicable